BOMBAY COURIER

EXTRAORDINARY.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1814.

THIS Morning arrived the Hon'ble Company's Cruizer Vestal from the Gulf, by which we have received various interesting particulars as extracted from London Couriers of the 17th, 18th and 19th of May, received at Buſſora on the 30th of Auguſt; and a copy of the Definitive Treaty of Peace in French, which was signed by the Plenipotentiaries on the 30th of May.

As the Treaty of Peace is extremely long, we ſhall be unable to preſent our Reade s with a translation of it before the publication of our regular paper of Saturday: It is nearly on the basis which we before expected: France is to hold all the Territories which ſhe enjoyed on the 1ſt of January 1792, and to have all her Colonies &c. reſtored as held at that time, except the Isle of France and its dependencies, and the Islands of Tobago and St. Lucie.

Guadaloupe is to be reſtored to France by the Swedes, and Malta is to remain with Great Britain &c. &c.

Lord Wellington has been appointed Ambassador at the Court of Paris, and has been presented with 400,000*l*.

Buonaparte arrived on the 4th of May at the Isle of Elba.

The Americans have repealed the Non Importation Act and Embargo and have directed their Ambassadors not to insist on the question relative to the impressment of American Seamen.

The Expedition had sailed to America, and will be commanded by Lord Hill.

Eugene Beauharnois created a Marshall of France. Talleyrand Minister for Foreign Affairs. Josephine died in April.

The Count D'Artois is appointed Colonel General of the National Guards.

We are sorry to find that frequent quarrels had arisen between the French and Allied Troops in Paris.

Davouſt has been dismissed and General Gerard has taken the command of his Army. Hamburg will be immediately evacuated.

Mantua, Pescheira and other Territories have been given up to the Auſtrians.

6000 applications were made in London at the Foreign Office for paſsports to Paris, in the ſpace of 2 days after the Peace was authenticated.
